

ANTHONY MICHEL

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

As a Police Officer working in general duties, I have vast experience in investigating and dealing with a wide variety of criminal and civil matters. I have excellent communication and interpersonal skills, further refined through the experience of many demanding interactions at critical incidents. I am able to efficiently assess and process information in any given situation and then determine and prioritize an appropriate and measured response.

As a perioperative Registered Nurse, I was responsible for facilitating the efficient operation of the theatre list by ensuring the required equipment was organized for each procedure; as well as liaising with the surgeon and anesthetist to meet their specific operating requirements. I was also the instrument nurse responsible for the preparation of the required surgical instruments for use prior to and during the surgical procedures.
